- b) Grant leave to the aggrieved woman upto a period of three months;

This leave shall be in addition to the leave she would be otherwise entitled

11. INQUIRY REPORT:

On completion of the inquiry, the Committee shall provide a copy of its findings to the employer within a period of 10 days from the date of completion of inquiry.

A copy of the report shall also be made available to the concerned parties.

Where the Committee has come to a conclusion that the allegations against the respondent has not been proved, it shall recommend to the employer that no action is required to be taken in the matter.

Where the Committee arrives at conclusion that the allegation against the respondent has been proved, it shall recommend to the employer as:

- i. To take action for sexual harassment as a misconduct in accordance with the service rules/code of conduct policy of the Company.
- ii. To deduct, notwithstanding anything in the service rules applicable to the respondent, from the salary or wages of the respondent such sum as it may consider appropriate to be paid to the aggrieved woman or to her legal heirs, as it may determine, in accordance with the provisions of Sec. 15 of the Act.

Provided that in case the employer is unable to deduct any such sum from the salary of the respondent employee due to the reason of being absent from duty or leaving service, the Committee may direct the respondent to pay such sum to the aggrieved woman and in case the respondent fails to comply with the orders of the Committee, the Committee may forward the order for recovery of the sum as an arrear of land revenue to the concerned District Officer.

12. PUNISHMENT FOR FALSE OR MALICIOUS COMPLAINT AND FALSE EVIDENCE:

Where the Committee comes to a conclusion that the allegations against the respondent are malicious or the aggrieved woman or any other person making the complaint has made the complaint knowing it to be false or the aggrieved woman or any other person making the complaint has produced any forged or misleading document, it may recommend to the employer to take action against the aggrieved woman in accordance with the provisions of the Service Rules. Also, if the Committee finds that any witness has given false evidence or produced forged documents, it may recommend to the employer to take action against such witness in accordance with the provisions of the Service Rules.

Provided that a mere inability to substantiate a complaint or provide adequate proof need not attract action against the Complainant under this section.

Provided further that the malicious intent or part of the Complainant shall be established after an enquiry in accordance with the procedure prescribed, before any action is recommended.

13. CONFIDENTIALITY:

The Company understands that it is difficult for the victim to come forward with a complaint of sexual harassment and recognizes the victim's interest in keeping the matter confidential.

To protect the interests of the victim, the accused person and others who may report incidents of sexual harassment, confidentiality will be maintained throughout any investigatory process to the extent practicable and appropriate under the circumstances.

14. ACCESS TO REPORTS AND DOCUMENTS:

All records of complaints, including contents of meetings, results of investigations and other relevant material will be kept confidential by the Company except where disclosure is required under disciplinary or other remedial processes.

15. PROTECTION TO COMPLAINANT / VICTIM:

The Company is committed to ensuring that no employee who brings forward a harassment concern is subject to any form of reprisal. Any reprisal will be subject to disciplinary action.

The Company will ensure that victim or witnesses are not victimized or discriminated against while dealing with complaints of sexual harassment.

However, anyone who abuses the procedure (for example, by maliciously putting an allegation knowing it to be untrue) will be subject to disciplinary action.

16. CONCLUSION:

In conclusion, the Company reiterates its commitment to providing its women employees, a workplace free from harassment/ discrimination and where every employee is treated with dignity and respect.
